

WANTED DEAD

Giant Salvinia

- Native to South America.
- A floating, rootless aquatic fern.
- Plant populations will double every 2-4 days..
- One plant can cover 40 square miles in three months.
- Prefers quiet, slow moving fresh water.
- Forms a dense surface cover preventing oxygen and sunlight from entering the water.
- Robs fish of the dissolved oxygen in the water with it's decomposing parts.
- Does not produce flowers.
- Does not tolerate ice on water.

WWW.WELDWEEDS.ORG