PRESENTATION OFFERS INSIGHT INTO IDENTITY THEFT

GREELEY, Colo. – In today's world of ever-changing technology, identity thieves are finding more ways to intrude not only into our finances but also into our personal lives. In fact, the crimes associated with identity theft have added new words to our everyday vocabulary.

Skimming, Phishing, Vishing, SmiShing...do you know what these mean? If not, the Weld County District Attorney's Office would like to remind you that we offer presentations on identity theft and senior fraud. Because one of the best ways to fight crime is to prevent crime, these presentations are designed to educate the community about current identity theft scams and to provide information about how individuals can better protect themselves from becoming a victim.

Presentations are free and available to all groups in Weld County. Please call Jennifer Finch, Community Relations Director, at 970-356-4010 ext. 4702 to learn more about these presentations.
