GREELEY MAN SENTENCED TO 20 YEARS IN PRISON FOR DISTRIBUTION OF DRUGS

GREELEY, Colo. – Friday afternoon (March 5, 2010) in Weld County District Court, Robert Medina (DOB 12/18/1970) was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Medina was convicted on January 27, 2010, of Conspiracy to Distribute a Schedule 2 Controlled Substance, a class two felony.

According to reports from the Weld County Drug Task Force, Medina, and his co-defendant Dale Sirratt, met with undercover members of the task force to arrange the sale of one-half ounce of methamphetamine for $1,000. Sirratt, who accepted a plea deal, is currently serving nine years in prison for distributing methamphetamine to task force agents.

Medina, who has five prior felony convictions, will have to serve five years on parole once he completes his prison sentence.
