As of the date this document was executed, the Colorado General Assembly has not ruled on the funding for the Senior Property Tax Exemption for tax year 2016; taxes payable in 2017. The Disabled Veteran Exemption is still an active program.

The property tax exemption for those who qualify is 50 percent of the first $200,000 in actual value of their primary residence. The state pays the exempted portion of the property tax. Those who have previously applied and have been granted the exemption do not need to apply again.

SENIOR CITIZEN ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The exemption is available to any senior who is at least 65 years old, and who has owned and occupied the home as his or her primary residence for at least 10 years, prior to January 1 of the year the application is filed. The application and instructions are available from, and should be submitted to, the county assessor listed on the front of this notice. The application deadline is July 15.

REAL PROPERTY APPEAL FORM

If you disagree with the "current year actual value" and/or the classification determined for your property, you may file an appeal by mail or in person with the County Assessor. Completing the Real Property Questionnaire will help you determine an estimate of value for your property, which can be compared to the value determined by the Assessor. Colorado law requires application of the market approach to value for residential properties (includes apartments) and consideration of the cost, market, and income approaches to value for vacant land, commercial, and industrial properties.
