Using the above values, the estimated tax based on the prior year value was $1,089. Using the above values, the estimated tax based on the current value was $1,089. This results in no change in tax. This estimate is based on 2015 tax rates. You will receive a tax bill in 2017.

The current year tax amount is merely an estimate based upon the best information available. You have the right to protest the adjustment in valuation, but not the estimate of taxes, § 39-5-121(1.5). C.R.S.

- The appraisal data used to establish real property value was from the 18-month period ending June 30, 2014. 39-1-104(10.2)(a), C.R.S. Notice:

As of the date this document was executed, the Colorado General Assembly has not ruled on the funding for the Senior Property Tax Exemption for tax year 2016; taxes payable in 2017. The Disabled Veteran Exemption is still an active program.

The property tax exemption for those who qualify is 50 percent of the first $200,000 in actual value of their primary residence. The state pays the exempted portion of the property tax. Those who have previously applied and have been granted the exemption do not need to apply again.

SENIOR CITIZEN ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The exemption is available to any senior who is at least 65 years old, and who has owned and occupied the home as his or her primary residence for at least 10 years, prior to January 1 of the year the application is filed. The exemption is also available to the surviving spouse of a senior who previously met these requirements prior to his or her death. The application and instructions are available from, and should be submitted to, the county assessor listed on the front of this notice. The application deadline is July 15.

DISABLED VETERANS

The exemption is available to any veteran who sustained a service-connected disability while serving on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, was rated by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs as 100% “permanent and total” disabled, and was honorably discharged. This Notice of Valuation does not reflect any information concerning the status of an application or reflect a reduction in actual value due to an approved exemption.
If you disagree with the “current year actual value” and/or the classification determined for your property, you may file an appeal by mail or in person with the County Assessor. Completing the Real Property Questionnaire will help you determine an estimate of value for your property, which can be compared to the value determined by the Assessor. Colorado law requires application of the market approach to value for residential properties (includes apartments) and consideration of the cost, market, and income approaches to value for vacant land, commercial, and industrial properties.

MARKET APPROACH (ALL PROPERTY TYPES): This approach to value uses sales from the 18-month period ending June 30, 2014. If data is insufficient during this time period, the Assessor may also consider data from the 5-year period ending June 30, 2014. Statute prohibits the Assessor from using appraisal data after June 30, 2014.

To help estimate the market value of your property, please list sales of similar properties that have sold in your neighborhood. A copy of an appraisal prepared prior to June 30, 2014 may be helpful in estimating the market value of your property.
