August 3, 2020

Dear Property Owner,

Enclosed you will find a Notice of Value for the 2020 tax year. Please note that the value reflected on this notice was based on a BIA (Best Information Available) assessment because you did not file a declaration with our office. The law requires you to file a declaration with our office every year.

The BIA assessment on this Notice is a value derived from comparing similar properties. The authority for this can be found in 39-5-116 C.R.S. This value (BIA) will remain on the account until an accurate declaration is received.

You should be aware that, per 39-5-122 C.R.S., since the value was derived from a BIA assessment, you cannot receive an abatement for taxes owed or a refund for taxes paid.

At this juncture, your only course of action to adjust your value is to file a timely protest of this Notice of Value. You can do so by following the instructions on the back of the form. Please include a complete and accurate declaration of all personal property. If you do not file a protest on this account, you will be taxed on the BIA value. You must protest between August 3rd and August 20th to have this value changed. After August 20th, you will not receive an adjustment, even if the value is erroneous. Taxes will be assessed on the BIA value and no abatement or refund will be granted.

If you have any questions, I urge you to contact either Cristina Caplinger at (970) 400-3686, Lauren Harford at (970) 400-3663 or Sean McElroy at (970) 400-3693.

Sincerely,
